SHAREL HO AND SUN HO, BREAKING GROUND WITH LIPOSONIX

SINGAPORE, September 2014 - Staying in ideal shape can be challenging for busy women juggling high-flying careers and family life. However, with a little help, successful entrepreneurs like Sharel Ho and Sun Ho show it can be effortless.

Sharel Ho, the glamorous Managing Director of DeFred Jewellers is a familiar face on the high society circuit, regularly appearing in luxury magazines and at gala events. When Ms Ho tried Liposonix for the first time, she found the treatment exactly what time-strapped career women like herself need to achieve the “perfect look”.

Similarly, Sun Ho, founder of LittleLives, a social networking platform for children and teachers, was amazed by the efficiency of the treatment and speed of the results. She said, “It’s such a simple treatment that it would suit most ladies.”

Liposonix, is an aesthetic treatment using High Intensity Focused Ultrasound (HIFU) to permanently destroy unwanted fat in targeted areas while contouring skin tissue. As a single treatment takes no more than an hour with optimum results showing after 8 – 12 weeks with up to a 2.5cm waistline reduction, Liposonix is invaluable for busy clients as there is no downtime.
